

Is the Islamic State group minting its own gold coins?

Photos of the Islamic State organization's new currency have appeared on social media for the first time. Designs on the coins include an engraving of a world map, an image that illustrates the IS group's desire to extend its rule across the globe. According to the IS group leader, the objective is to free itself from a satanic world economic system, and the new money would be uniquely made of precious metals, with pieces in gold, silver and copper.

伊斯兰国组织正在自制金币吗？
